'Head'lines (Miss Lisa Roberts, Headteacher)

Welcome back everyone – I hope you all had a lovely (extra-long) half-term and enjoyed plenty of sunshine and Jubilee-themed events!

It's hard to believe we are in the final half-term of what has been the first 'normal' year in three years – only five and a half weeks left and still so much to fit in before the summer break.

Please see below for a reminder of events still to take place:

Due to this being a three-day week; there are no certificates or class sections to the newsletter this week.

Please see overleaf/below for an exciting PTA event coming soon...

Have a great weekend ☺

SAVE THE DATE – PTA Camp Out – Saturday 2nd July

This year, instead of a Summer Fair, we will be holding a camp out for Sandridge School families.

We will be providing a fish and chip supper, tuck shop and lollies. You will be able to bring your own drinks and any other food. Details of how to book, including the cost, will be sent out shortly.

Everyone is welcome for the evening, whether they will be camping out or not!

If you would like to camp, but don't have a tent, please let Emma Burrows know. If you have a spare tent that you would be happy for another family to borrow, please also let Emma know.
